BJ

Arrival of His Excellency the Viceroy at Bangalore.

—:—

Their Excellencies the Viceroy and Countess of Reading will arrive at Bangalore City Railway Station by special train at 8-30 A.M. on Tuesday, the 27th November 1923.

2. Their Excellencies will be met at * Malur Station at 6-55 A.M. by the Secretary to the Resident, and the two principal officers of the Mysore State.

3. The Viceregal Saloon will be drawn up immediately opposite the centre of the station buildings. The platform will be decorated.

4. A Guard of Honour of the 2nd Battalion Wiltshire Regiment will be drawn up on the platform on the left of the Viceregal party as they alight. The officers and gentlemen invited to attend will be in the places respectively assigned to them.

A Royal Salute of 31 guns will be fired as His Excellency alights from the train.

5. On alighting, Their Excellencies will be received by the Resident in Mysore and his staff; the General Officer Commanding the Madras District who will be attended by two Staff Officers; the Colonel Commandant, Bangalore Brigade Area; Officers Commanding Regiments; Heads of Departments (including Chaplains); the Dewan of Mysore; sixteen of the principal officers of the Mysore State including a retired officer; and such other officers and citizens as may be invited to be present.

6. The Resident and his Secretary will present to Their Excellencies the General Officer Commanding Madras District, the Colonel Commandant, Bangalore Brigade Area, and the Dewan of Mysore followed by the members of the Resident's staff and four principal officers of the Mysore State.

The General Officer Commanding Madras District will then present to His Excellency the Officers of the Madras District and Brigade Staffs and Officers Commanding Units, the introductions to Her Excellency being made by Colonel Commandant Jackson.

Finally, the Resident and his Secretary will introduce to Their Excellencies the remaining Civil Officers directed to be present as well as the remaining officers (twelve in number) of the Mysore State including a retired officer.

7. His Excellency will next inspect the Guard of Honour on the platform, accompanied by the General Officer Commanding Madras District and His Excellency's personal staff, returning to the centre of the platform where Her Excellency will join the Viceroy.

8. Their Excellencies will then proceed to the pandal. The members of the Bangalore City Municipal Council will be on the right of the pandal facing the train. The President will read and present an address of welcome. His Excellency the Viceroy will reply to the address, a place being reserved for Her Excellency by the Viceroy's side. The President, the Vice-President and the members will be introduced individually by the Resident. Their Excellencies will then leave the Station.

* His Excellency the Viceroy is pleased to dispense with the deputation on this occasion owing to the untimely hour at which the Viceregal train arrives at Malur.

9. A Guard of Honour of the Mysore State Troops will be drawn up outside the Railway Station.

10. After the Viceroy and party have left the Station platform a procession will be formed as follows:—

FIRST CAR.

His Excellency the Viceroy.
Her Excellency the Countess of Reading.
Military Secretary to the Viceroy.

SECOND CAR.

The Resident.
The Political Secretary.
A. D. C. to the Viceroy.

THIRD CAR.

Private Secretary to the Viceroy.
Surgeon to the Viceroy.
A. D. C. to the Viceroy.

FOURTH CAR.

Secretary to the Resident.
Residency Surgeon.
A. D. C. to the Viceroy.

11. The procession will proceed by the following route:—

From Bangalore City Railway Station the procession will proceed by the underbridge, along the north side of the Dharmambudhi Tank, pass the Old Sileadar Lines and proceed along Seshadri Road through Cubbon Park, along Queen's Road and Cubbon Road entering the Residency by the main gate.

12. The road from the Railway Station to the Residency will be lined by His Highness' troops as far as the boundary of the City and thence onwards by the troops of the Bangalore Garrison.

13. The Police arrangements for the Civil and Military Station limits will be made by the District Superintendent of Police, Civil and Military Station, and for the City limits by the Government of Mysore.

14. Municipal Address.—En route to the Residency, His Excellency will receive an address from the Municipal Commissioners of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore at the Queen Victoria's Statue in the Cubbon Park. The President, the Vice-President, and the members will be presented individually to His Excellency by the Secretary to the Resident in Mysore. The Vice-President will read the address. Admission to witness this ceremony will be by tickets issued by the President.

15. A Guard of Honour of the Bangalore Battalion, A. F. I., will be drawn up at the Residency. As His Excellency alights a Royal Salute of 31 guns will be fired and the Guard of Honour will present arms. The Viceroy's flag will be broken from the Residency Flag staff. His Excellency will inspect the Guard of Honour.

16. The District Superintendent of Police will precede the procession.

(29)

17. The Viceregal car will draw up in the porch of the Residency followed by the 2nd, 3rd and 4th cars.

18. Admission to the roped-in portions of the railway platform will be by ticket only.

19. Persons desirous of obtaining tickets should apply to the Collector and District Magistrate of the Civil and Military Station.

20. The Railway Police will keep the roped-in portions of the platform entirely clear, except for ticket holders, officers to be presented to the Viceroy, and the necessary officials, from 7-45 a.m. and the approaches to the Station on the route of the Viceregal procession will be blocked, except to ticket holders, from 8 a.m. until after the procession has passed.

21. Carriages conveying gentlemen entitled to attend at the Railway Station will go to the overbridge entrance; cars for the conveyance of the Viceregal party will pass through the underbridge entrance. Different coloured tickets will be issued accordingly. The British Railway Police will keep order at and around the Station, and be in charge of all parking arrangements there.

Gentlemen invited to be present at the Railway Station should enter and leave it by the overbridge. The processional route should not be used for the departure till the procession has passed.

Note.—All Gazetted Officers serving under the Resident will attend at the Railway Station. Full dress uniform (cloth) will be worn. Officers not entitled to wear uniform will appear in morning dress.
